

INWA NORDIC WALKING COMPETITION RULES 2024

1. Definition of Nordic Walking

INWA's Nordic Walking is an intensification of regular walking thanks to the active use of a pair of specially designed Nordic Walking poles, whilst maintaining the characteristics of natural, bio-mechanically correct walking and appropriate posture.

Therefore, whilst walking with the poles, a natural rhythm is experienced in the fluid movement of the arms and legs. Indeed, Nordic Walking involves the same 'opposite arm to leg' natural coordination of ordinary walking. The arms should never come further forward than they are in brisk walking without poles. During each forward step, the body experiences a pelvic rotation and opposite shoulder rotation; thus, the arms move alternately forward and backward.

Active and controlled trunk movements together with correct body alignment and core stability are important parts of Nordic Walking. It is important that the arm movement follows the rotation of the trunk, and the trunk rotation is a logical effect of the leg movement.

2. Nordic Walking Competitions

Nordic Walking competitions are sporting events in which fitness comes first and competition second. The goal is to preserve a good technique and gain the benefits of this activity through a fun competitive sporting experience. Nordic Walking competitions can become a motivation for regular Nordic Walking training, walking in the outdoors, enjoying nature, keeping an active lifestyle, and ultimately improving fitness.

Competitions can have individual and relay categories. In the relay, the number of the team members is 4. The categories are established separately for each event by INWA and local organisations.

3. Nordic Walking Technique

To comply with INWA Race Nordic Walking rules, every participant must use the correct technique. Special attention should be paid to the highlighted points when considering the penalty cards:

- 3.1. Ensure that the arms and legs move alternately in a natural manner.
- 3.2. Ensure that at no point both feet or both poles are off the ground at the same time. Running is forbidden.
- 3.3. Ensure the poles contact the ground at the same time as the opposite heel.
- 3.4. Ensure the poles are placed on the side of the distance and longitudinal area between the toes of the front foot and the heel of the rear foot except for ascending or descending steep rises or steps.
- 3.5. Ensure that the centre of gravity is not abnormally lowered.
- 3.6. Ensure that there is an active push through the poles to propel the body forward. When pushing through the pole there should be arm extension without elevation of the shoulder girdle and the hand should at least reach the bodyline but ideally cross the bodyline backwards.
- 3.7. Ensure that the leading hand holding the grip of the pole passes the body line when placing the pole in front.
- 3.8. Ensure that the poles are gripped when placing them on the ground and actively released when pushing with an open hand at the back.
- 3.9. Ensure that non-use of the poles by any participant is only allowed at the drinking stations according to the specific course rules.
- 3.10. Ensure that the participants wear the straps of the poles correctly.
- 3.11. Ensure that each participant wears their race numbers (provided by the organiser) correctly, one on the back and one on the chest.
- 3.12. Ensure that the participant is not allowed to block the path of other participants.

4. Race Entry

Race Entry is open to all Nordic Walkers who completed the required entry form and terms and conditions form, and can assure the organisers that they are capable of completing the distance of the race in a reasonable time and that they accept all liability for any injury, illness, loss or damage that they may suffer or incur as a result of entering the race.
